Your Blood

Needs purifying and your whole system renovating in the spring, as pimples, bolls, eruptions, dull headaches dyspeptic troubles, loss of appetite and that tired feeling annually prove.

The most effective and successful medicine for the complete purification of the blood and the complete renovation of the whole system is Hood's Sarsaparilla It will make you feel better, look ster, eat and sleep better. Get 4t fo-day in usual liquid form or locolated tablets called Sarsatabs.

ROOSEVELT NEVER DRUNK IN HIS LIFE

restimony showed that he drank liquor or wine when compelled to for indisposition or when the conventionalities of public occasions required, except that he takes a glass of light wine, rarely two glasses, with his meals.

Much of the succeeding testimony went, to indicate that the plaintiff's physical vigor, his functional perfection, his violence of exercise and capacity for work could not exist in the pacity for work could not exist in the Cross-Examination of the Colorphysical vigor, his functional perfec-tion, his violence of exercise and en-pacity for work could not exist in the person of one who got drunk, and that not infrequently, as the alleged libel-ous editorial in the Iron Ore charged. important witnesses on this phase of xamination were Dr. Alex Lam-Colonel Roosevelt's family physician and intimate friend of thirty years, and Dr. T. N. Rixey, surgeon-general, United States Navy, retired, whose official duties during the McKinley and Roosevelt's terms included that to guard the presidential physical wellheing. Other witnesses were Jacob Rils and Gilson Gardner, the former a socialogist and writer, and the latter a newspaper man, whose duty for many years compelled him to take close note of everything pertaining to ose official duties during the Mcclose note of everything pertaining to Colonel Roosevelt. Mr. Lambert testided he had made a special study of the heart and lungs and of the effect of dechol, tobago, opiates and drugs on he human system. the human system.

When Mr. Andrews, on the examination, suggested that witness's "knowledge of what the Colonel drank at meal time did not extend to breakfasts," the doctor said:

"Oh, yes, indeed. I have frequently stated at the Possabelt homes!" stayed at the Roosebelt home all night, and might drop in at breakfast any time, as I frequently did." Special Attention.

Dr. Lambert said he had given special attention to the study of alchoi-more than to any other line; had written a book on the subject, which was standard in the profession, and probably during his career had treated 40,000 cases of alcholism and allied dis-'He is extremely temperate," testified octor. His heart and liver, which alcoholic would be affected, he were prodigiously healthy. He never was called upon to treat his friend professionally until he was to Mercy Hospital, Chicago, afr Colonel Roosevelt was shot. He sewed the wound. "None but a Vigorous and healthy man could have stood the shock and loss of blood as did Colonel Roosevelt," he said. "No alcoholic could have rallied as he did. He was not nervous, as an alcoholic would have been, and, despite the pain, fell asleep and rested quietly as a baby."

A. "I was in the Mercy Hospital, Chicago, at the time."

Q. "Did you know that Mr. Wallace had charge of it, and did you know that he had charge of employing counsel?"

A. "The first the pain of the pain have been, and, despite the pain, fell asleep and rested quietly as a baby. Had he been a drinking man, his nervous system would have showed it. He might even have had delirium tremens.

It is a fact that 50 per cent of alcoholics who are wounded or shocked as personally."

A. "No, he was not employed by me personally." Roosevelt was would have gone expense

Witness spoke of hunting trips in that? Louisiann, in which he was the partial formal forma taken at a dinner given to members of a hunting party on a train.

A "Mr Pound has had charge of it.

Mr. Andrews—"I think that is all."

Mr. Andrews—I think that is all."

Mr. Andrews over her president is the mount of the wild of the condent of the wild of the condent of the wild of the condent of the wild of the second of the wild. Association of the wild of the wild. Association is all the condent of the wild of the second of the wild. Association is all. The court—I'll seems to court to me the question is leading."

Mr. Andrews—I think that is all."

Mr. Andrews

tainly twenty years since.
"At home I often will drink a wineglass or two of Madeira. I sometimes drink a glass of champagne, or per-haps two. I think that on the average this means that I will drink champagne about once a month "While at the White House I never

"While at the White House I never touched brandy or whiskey, excepting, possibly, half a dozen times a year, and possibly on two or three occasions, when Dr. Rixey prescribed a drink of whiskey—once, if I remember aright, for an attack of acute indigestion and once when he and I had made a long ride and came in through a snowstorm, and he gave me some whiskey, and I ride and came in through a snowstorm, and he gave me some whiskey, and I disliked it so that after taking a sip I would not take more.

"Outside of these prescriptions of Dr. Rixey, we usually had at lunch some light wine.

"No man who knew me ever asked me to take any whiskey, because they knew that under no circumstances did I take it. Neither while in the White House nor at any other time have I ever drunk or taken any kind of liquor between meals except as above stated, and in the White House I not only did not drink whiskey or brandy, but I did not drink whiskey or brandy, but I did not know where any whiskey or brandy

The cross-examination of the Colone cross-examination of the Colo-nei was conducted by Horace Andrews, of the defense.

The former President said he had not been in Michigan except on a "flying trip" for eight or ten years, and that his acquaintance in Michigan was limited.

Q. "Did I understand you to say you have never taken anything in the way

A."I did not drink a dozen glasses of whiskey in fifteen years." "Do you keep wine of any kind in your house?"

A. "Yes."
Q. "Did you keep brandy in the White House?"
Mr. Pound: "I object to that." The court: "You may note an excep-

Roosevelt: "I continued to keep wine as I found that my predecessor had "Did you drink whiskey, or have you drunk whiskey, on your trips

A. "No. except as I have described, a tenspoonful in a glass of milk."
Q. "Now, did you carry a flask of Q. "Now, did you carry a hash whiskey or brandy with you on your

A. "I did not."
Q. "Do you know Mr. Wallace, of De-

A. "Yes, sir."

Q. "Had he anything to do with the bringing of this suit, if you know?"

A. "That I cannot tell."

Q. "Don't you know who began this

A. "That I could not say,"
Q. "Was Mr. Pound employed by

Q "Do you know who paid for the of taking testimony and all

Did you stand that expense?" Colorado, Montana, the Dakotas and in Louisiana, in which he was the plain-tiff's companion. There was usually organization in the State of Michigan? "And it has not been borne by any

A. "Mr. Pound has had enarge the Mr. Andrews—"I think that is all." Mr. Pound, on redirect examination,

"Berry's for Clothes"

Our Raincoats are in the reigning style—you don't have to study the weather chart. With one on your arm you have your armor plate with you—it's a good ooker too. ooker too.

costs $15 to $30.

Raincoats for women, too. Specialties that wear and are stylish like the men's-

Raincoats for children, also.

punches, which it had been testified were given the Colonel in mild form by medical direction, Dr. Rixey estimated that in the seven and one-half years at that in the seven and one-half years at the White House, Mr. Roosevelt drank maybe twenty punches under his direc-

"He didn't like them, and fought me off when he could," said the witness.
Depositions of Dr. John B. Murphy and Dr. Arthur D. Betan, of Chicago, were read as confirming the testimony of Dr. Lambert. While Roosevelt was at Mercy Hospital, at Chicago, suffering from the bullet wound, he showed no signs of having been an excessive ing from the bullet wound, he showed no signs of having been an excessive user of alcoholic liquor. Dr. Murphy gave five reasons for saying that Col-onel Roosevelt did not use liquor, as "The absence of alcoholic liquor odor on his breath.

"Because of the absence of enlargement of the liver.

"The absence of tremor of his hands in this period.

"The absence of bile.

"He had to have no stimulants of any kind during the progress of his and his nervous system was even-At 4:45 P. M. Judge Flannagan announced that court would adjourn un-til 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Charters Issued. ent was issued to the charter of Building Corporation of Alexan-increasing its capital from $100,000 diment was issued to the charter of prive and Ten-Cent Stores (inc.), of the News, increasing its capital from to 140,000.

Al Rooting Manufacturing Corporation of the News, increasing its capital from to 140,000.

Al Rooting Manufacturing Corporation of the News, increasing the News, preside the News, preside the News, preside the News, News, S. E. Allison, vice-preside treasurer, York, Pa.; William E. Secretary, York, Pa.; William E. School, J. T. Hyslop, president taven, Va.; J. W. Chandler, vice-present the News, Ne sharply: "Mr. Boosevelt is a gentleman."

There was some discussion as to whether witnesses should testify of the gentility of the former President but it the end the court ruled that it might be taken for granted.

Robert Bacon, James R. Garfield and Gifford Pinchot probably will testify to-morrow, among others.

Colonel Roosevelt, on the stand after sketching life its said:

"I have never drunk a cocktail or a highball in my life. I don't enoke and I don't drink beer, and I dislike smoking and dislike the taste of beer. I never have drunk whiskey or brandy except when the doctor prescribed it, or possibly on some occasion when I was but in the glant of the probably will be taked to gentle.

Should that he saw Minimum temperature up to 8 P. M. Minimum temperature up to 8 P.

CONDITIONS IN IMPORTANT CITIES.

(At 8 P. M. Eastern Standard Time.)
Place Ther. H. T. L. T. Weather.
Asheville 54 68 54 Rain
Atlanta 62 74 62 Cloudy
Atlantic City 60 64 60 Cloudy
Boston 48 58 48 Rain
Buffalo 56 58 56 Rain
Calgary 76 74 E6 P. cloudy
Charleston 70 82 70 Rain
Chicago 62 62 56 Clear
Denver 68 54 69 Cloudy
Luluth 54 76 54 Clear
Galveston 75 22 70 Clear
Hatterax 65 78 56 Rain
Bayre 78 54 56 Cloudy Rain
Cloudy
Rain
Rain
P. cloudy
Rain
Clear
Clear Havre
Jacksonville
Kansas City
Louisville
Montgomery
New Orleans
New York
Norfolk New York 10
Norfolk 84
Oxishoms 10
Pitteburgh 62
Haleigh 67
St Tobiz 74
St Table 88
San Francisco 54
Savannah 72
Dokane 66
Sampa 76
Vachington 66 Varnington

Wythaville MINIATURE ALGIANAC.

May 22 1912.

HIGH TIDE:

and get them

the 1729 Evening ... life essential thing.

BRAVE MEN OF SOUTH

EULOGIZED BY YOUNG

modern wars.

widow of two Confederate officers. Her list husband, Colonel Clement S.

FALLS IN CANAL.

Man Tumbles While Sitting on Rail and Is Almost Drowned.

While sitting on the wooden railing on the bridge over the canal at Seventh and Canal Streets, early this morning, T. J. White, twenty-two years old, of York County, lost his balance, fell into the water, and was almost drowned before the crew of a passing locomotive heard his cries and rescued him from his situation. When the railway men reached the scene, White had been washed under the low bridge, had been washed under the low bridge, and was clinging to a support. A plank was ripped up and the man lifted out. He was placed under arrest by Policemen Crump and Gary, and locked up in the First Police Station on the charge of being drunk.

According to the incoherent talk of White, there was another man sitting on the rail with him, who also fell into the canal, but the searchers failed on the rail with him, who also tell into the canal, but the searchers failed to find any sign of him. White bimself appeared to be very much under the influence of liquor, and inclined to be Damaged by Cyclone.

Anderson, S. C., May 27.—The town of Honeapath, S. C., was this afternoon struck by a cyclone, which did much damage to property and for a time out off communication by telegraph and telephone. No loss of life is reported.

reticent about his adventure.

Chattanoogs, Tenn., May 27.—Brav- once more with them the men who followed the men and women of the lowed the banners of the South. Ten ory, and the men and women of the Confederate States, were eulogized here to-day in an address by General Ben-States that it could not but be that mander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans, in his response to speeches by State and city officials tendering the convention hall to the veterans attending the reunion here. General Veterans attending the reunion here. General Veterans attending the reunion here. General Veterans attending the reunion here. erans attending the reunion here. General Young's address was surcharged with Southern five and courage, characteristic of ante-hellum days.

In paying a glowing tribute to "bravery," the speaker praised highly the Japanese courage as exhibited at the siege of Port Arthur, his remarks prefacing a comparative claim upon the city of their reunion, held by the Confiderate veterans.

had declared when completed, 'all hell could not take.'"

The pure-wool cravenetted osts $15 to $30.

Other kinds from $5 to $15.

Other kinds from $5 to $15.

Gwathmey assed issues that will be superior that the confederate name, or in the remon that the confederate name, or in the superior that the confederate name, or in the superior that the confederate name, or in the remon that the confederate name, or in the latest the place of the veterans for their welcome to Chatta-nooga, the speaker declared: "We breathe a welcome in the air, the currents of the beautiful Fiver flowing by your city murmur their pleasure at our presence, and these majestic mountains, witnesses of unsurpassed heroism, standing as stately guardians over battlefields made historic by the od of heroes, give acquiescence to your gladness and your joy at the pres-ence of these survivors of the Confed-erate armies. It could not be otherwise than that the people of the great 'volunteer State' should rejoice to have

GIVE US A CHANCE TO FREE

Mr. Delano took his own medicine. It cured his rheumatism after he had suffered tortures for thirty-six years. He spent $20,000 he fore he discovered the remedy that cured him but we'll give you the benefit of his experience for nothing.

If you suffer from rheumatism let us send you a package of this remedy absolutely free. Don't send any money. We want to give it to you. We want you to see for yourself what it will do. The picture shows how rheumatism twists and distorts the bones, Maybe you are suffering the same way. Don't. You don't need to. We have the yourse for the asking. Write to-day. The Delano Company, 61-F, Delano Bidg. Syracuse. New York, and we'll send you a free package the very day we get your letter.

The Virginia and North Carolina sponsors and maids of honore have been ments. In the parade of sponsors held this afternoon over ten automobiles were filled with the Virginia and North Carolina sponsors. After this clocal headquarters. Colonel J. Taylor Ellyson, of Richmond, is one of the prominent men of affairs for the Virginia delegates. He is a member of the finance committee of the organization. Major J. A. Long, of Roxboro, N. C. is also a member of this committee.

Lieutenant-Governor Thomas J. Garnett, of Norfolk, is the commander of the Virginia Divisio; and Major-General Carr is also chairman of the women's monument committee. The Virginia and North Carolina sponsors and maids of honor have been honored here by a series of entertainments. In the parade of sponsors held this afternoon over ten automobiles were filled with the Virginia and North Carolina sponsors. After this they were tendered a reception at the local headquarters. Colonel J. Taylor Ellyson, of Richmond, is one of the prominent men of affairs for the Virginia delegates. He is a member of the finance committee of the organization. Major J. A. Long, of Roxboro, N. C., is also a member of this committee.

V. V.'s Eyes

A NEW NOVEL BY THE AUTHOR OF "QUEED" IS NOW READY AT ALL BOOKSTORES.

Buy your DRUGS at

and get them Fresh-a very

IDENTITY OF GUEST

Mrs. Gwathmey Named in Application for Divorce Brought by Mrs. Bishop.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] New York, May 27 .- The identity of guest who signed his name "Dr. and modern wars."

Declaring that the veterans have a history "that speaks now, and that will speak for all ages to come, of patriotism and heroism," General Young recalled some of the notable battles of the War Betewen the States, dwelling briefly on incidents of each. Mrs. J. C. Baer, Philadelphia," on the register of the Hotel Astor on various dates in 1912 is the emportant point in a divorce case brought to trial to-day before Supreme Court Justice Goff. Mrs. Abigail Hancock Bishop, wife of James Cunningham Bishop, the mil- Tacer la Notte Placior.......Verdi He also paid high tribute to the women of the South and to each Southern State which was included in the Con-

State which was federacy.

Name Can Never Die.

"The name of the Confederacy," if General Young added, "and of the Confederacy is general Young added," in the Confederacy is generally in the Confederacy is lionaire banker, has charged that the writer of this signature is her husband, and that the "Mrs." in question is Mrs. J. Temple Gwathmey, a beautiful society matron of this city. Mrs. Bishop's contention regarding the handwriting was supported to-day by William J. Kinsley, the handwriting expert who swore that in his critical General Young added, "and of the Confederate soldier, can never die. The Confederate nation lived only four years. It made more history in those four years than any other nation that ever existed so brief a while. Time, pitiless time, has fearfully thinned the ranks of the men who fought under the Confederate standard. The death roll is ever enlarging, the demands of the grave are calling one in eight every year. A remnant still see he hollest pride and boundless joy in the renown that crowns the Confederate name.

"It is ours in all its splendor and grandeur; no hand can rob us of our birth-fight. There are no recruits to take the place of departing comrades. They have going, going, and in the confederate name.

"They have going, going, going, and in the confederate of the confederate name."

"They have going, going, going, and in the confederate of the place of departing comrades. They have going, going, and in the confederate of the place of departing comrades. They have going, going, and in the confederate of the place of departing comrades. They have going going and in the confederate of the confederate name.

"They have going going and in the confederate matten and writing was supported to-day by William J. Kinsley, the handwriting expert, who swore that in his opinion Mr. Bishop wrote the disputed signature on the Hotel Astor register.

Mrs. Bishop's application for a divorce, naming Mrs. Gwathmey and others, has raised issues that will be the most sharply contested of any that have come into the Supreme Court for trial in years. Both Mrs. Gwathmey and have retained counsel to protect their interests. George Gordon Battle appeared to-day for Mrs. Gwathmey and Henry W. Taft is defending Mr. Bishop.

Former District Attorney William T.

William J. Kinsley said he was convinced from his study of the disputed signatures that Bishop wrote them because these signatures have all the characteristics of the genuine signatures." He claborated the alleged characteristics and pointed out alleged similarities between the genuine and disputed signatures. He produced enlarged photographs of letters and signatures, and was still under cross-examination by Mr. Taft when the trial was adjourned until to-morrow.

Mrs. Gwathmey was too ill to come Mrs. Gwathmey was too ill to come Engagement Announced.

widow of two Confederate officers. Her first husband. Colonel Clement S. Clay, was imprisoned with Jefferson Davis when the latter was detained at Fortress Monroe at the end of war. General K. M. Van Zandt, of Fort Worth, Tex., commander of the Trans-Mississippi department, was presiding officer at the afternoon business session of the veterans. At this meeting a motion was made and adopted to take no action upon the proposition of the Confederate veterans participating in the Joint semi-centennial celebration of the battle of Gettysburg.

Among the speakers at this gathering were General C. Ivanhoe Walker, of Charleston, S. C., honorary commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans, and D. S. Henderson, of Aiken, S. C., General Walker recalled a number of the active engagements in which he participated near this city fifty years ago. Colonel Henderson rivocated the "land movement." "the education of the masses," and urged the veterans to stand for the basic principles of the Federal Constitution, and to resist such changes in the form of our government as a "great many people are clamoring for under the leadership of temporary politicians."

To-night a reception in honor of Confederate veterans was tendered at Young pavillon by the United Daughters of the Confederacy, Chapters A. P. Stuart and Francis M. Walker.

Virginiaus Are Prominent.

William vinced fresignatures "because characteric tures." characteric tures." characteric similaritie disputed: similaritie disputed: similaritie disputed: samilaritie d Ispecial to The Times-Dispatch.]
Ashland, Va., May 27.—An attractive announcement party was given this afternoon by Miss Anne Hunter at the home of her parents here to the members of the Young Woman's Literary Society, at which the engagement of Miss Epie Duncan Blackwell, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Blackwell, of this place, to Dr. J. Fred Messick, of Auburn, Ala., was announced. The wedding, which will take place on June 18, will be a quiet home affair, and Dr. and Mrs. Messick will go abroad on their wedding trip. For the announcement party the Hunter home was very attractively decorated with roses and sweetpeas. The hostess was assisted by Misses Imogene Riddick, of Richmond, and Byrd Thompson and Marshall Hunter, of Ashland.

Virginlans Are Prominent.
Chattanooga, Tenn., May 27.—Virginia people on the first day of the twenty-third annual reunion of the Confederate Veterans showed up to the best advantage, there being only two other States which had the representation of this State. These were Tennessee and Texas.

Governor Mann, who was one of the opening speakers, was unable to be present. The entire staff of General Young from North Carolina and Virginia were all in attendance. These are Colonel J. H. Curry, Fayetteville, N. C.; Colonel M. W. Jewett, Ivanhoe, Va.; Colonel E. H. McDonald, Winchester, Va.; Colonel G. L. Christian, Richmond; Colonel R. E. Lee, Jr., Fairfax, Va.

The Virginia and North Carolina after the colone of the oldest citizens of this county died rather unexpectedly yesterday afternoon at his home, "Forest Hill," near Lowesville, Mr. Waller, the colone of the oldest citizens of the colone of the col

The Virginia and North Carolina had been suffering with malaria for some weeks past, but on Sunday was thought to be improving. He was a gallant Confederate soider. For some

FUNERAL NOTICE

TREVVETT.—The funeral services over the remains of MRS. E. J. TREVVETT were conducted at Glen Allen Baptist Church at 5 P. M. Monday evening, the 28th instant. Prominent and active in church and Sunday school work, the tributes of love and respect for her life, of sorrow for her death, so unexpected, and of sympathy for the bereaved fan y were manifest in overflowing measure. Decensed was a daughter of the late John E. Broaddus, of Henrico County, and leaves her husband and six children, also six brothers and sisters, to mourn her death. Howitzers in Asheville.

Asheville, N. C., May 27.—The Richmond Howitzers passed through Asheville yesterday morning in a special train en route to the reunion of the United Confederate Veterans at Chattanooga. The special train arrived here at 7:45 o'clock and left at 8:20, the visitors taking breakfast here.

The party is made up of seventy-five Howitzers, twenty-nine Confederate veterans and eight women. On the return trip they will stop here Saturday for a stay of several hours, arriving at 8 o'clock in the morning and remaining until 3 in the afternoon. They will be received here by the two companies of infantry of the North Carolina National Guard and Troop B, cavalry. It is also likely that the First Regiment Band will be at the Southern passenger station to aid in giving them a hearty welcome to Asheville. The visitors will be entertained with drives to various points of interest in and around the city, and will take luncheon at one of the local hotels.

They Are on Sale To-Day, the New June Records for Your Victrola

Song of the Chimes . . . . . . Worrell By Alma Gluck. Les Ramerux (The Palms) . . . Faure Edmond Clement, Tenor.

A new "Rigoletto" solo. Parmi Veder le Lagrime.....Verdi (Each Tear that Falls.) By Enrico Caruso.

(My Heart is His Alone.) From Trovatore." Sung by Tetrazzini.

And a dozen others. Stop in and let us play them for you. Orders by mail filled and shipped same day.

Mr. Waller is survived by two sisters, Mrs M. H. Robertson, of Amherst Courthouse, and Miss Sallie Waller, of "Forest Hill," both of whom were at his bedside when the end came. He was unmarried. His remains will be Wednesday morning at 11 buried o'clock in the family graveyard near Low sville

Mrs. Charles A. Webb.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Asheville, N. C., May 27.—Mrs.

Charles A. Webb, the wife of Democratic State Chairman Webb, died yesterday morning at her home on Hillside Street. Mrs. Webb passed away in the presence of her family and near relatives, after a long and distressing illness which she bore with fortitude and cheerfulness. Mrs. Webb was forty-two years of age and was a native of this city, having been the daughter of Samuel M. and Julia H. Banks. Her father died when she was ten years of age, and she moved with her mother to Washington city, where she remained until her marriage eighteen years ago. After her marriage, she returned to Asheville and spent her married life among the mountains Mrs. Charles A. Webb.

her married life among the mountains she loved so well. The funeral services will be conducted to morrow and the interment will follow at the Riverside Cemetery. Governor Locke Craig has wired that he will attend the funeral.

James William Taylor.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Winchester, Va., May 27.—James William Taylor, thirty-four years old, a popular merchant, died in Memorial Hospital to-day of congestion of the lungs. Surviving are a widow, one son, his mother, three brothers and two sisters.

DEATHS

WINSTON—Died, May 26, at "Signal Hill," Hanover County, Va., MRS. BETTY B. WINSTON, wife of the late Dr. Bickerton Winston, in the seventy-eighth year of her age, She was in every sense a noble woman, and she died as she had lived—a strong, brave spirit. All her life, by thought and deed, she proved herself to be a follower of Christ. She was the children's friend, and for them peopled this world with fairies. By gentle touch and radiant smile she made life less sorrowful for the sad pnes who came to her. Her joyous spirit passed triumphantly from death to life into eternal light and love, from which she came to live with us a little while.

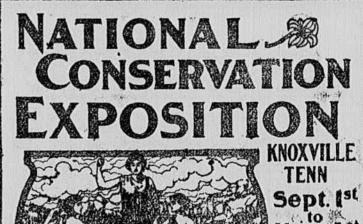

WRIGHT.—Died, at his home, at El-mont, May 27, 1913, at 11:15 A. M., FRANK M. WRIGHT, aged forty-Funeral at Kenwood Church, at Elmont, Hanover County, WEDNES-DAY EVENING at 4 o'clock, Friends and acquaintances invited to attend.

BAKER.—Died, Monday, May the 28, 1913, at 7 o'clock P. M., on Onkwood Avenue, MRS. MARY F. BAKER, widow of Ex-Policeman Baker. She leaves three children—Fred F., W. J. and Mrs. D. E. Ellis.

Funeral THIS (Wednesday) AFTERNOON at 4:30 o'clock from the residence.

PAYNE.—Died, at the residence of her parents, 513 North Fifth Street, at 9:40 P. M., May 27, 1913, GRACE HOWARD, eldest daughter of Thos. J. and Delia S. Payne. Funeral notice later.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

The big event of the year, national in scope, with the South as its special field. Grounds cover more than 100 acres. Eleven large buildings and a number of smaller structures. Ten acres of exhibit space. The Industrial Progress of the South to be shown in a special All-South Building. Many large exhibitors taking from 500 to 2,000 square feet for their displays. Attractions new and on extensive scale.

Make your plans to visit the largest exposition ever held in the Southern States. Reduced rates from all points. Write for illustrated booklets.